Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing, Home and Community) - CHC33015 (555 nominal hours)	$899	$266.40	$120

[^] Includes targeted fee relief.

You may be eligible for subsidised training if you:

Live in Western Australia and

- » Have left school and are an Australian citizen or
- » Are a permanent visa holder or
- » Are a dependent or spouse of the primary holder of a visa.

Concessions

The following people will be eligible for concession rates:

- » Persons holding a Pensioner Concession Card, Health Care Card, or Veteran's Gold or White Card
- » Persons and dependents of persons in receipt of Youth Allowance, AUSTUDY or ABSTUDY
- » Dependents of persons who are inmates of a custodial institution
- » Secondary school-aged persons not enrolled at school
- » Alzheimer's WA employees.

Proof of eligibility for a concession must be provided at enrolment or prior to commencement of the course otherwise full fees will be charged.

Recognition of Prior Learning

An application for recognition of prior learning can be made if you have previously gained unrecognised skills and knowledge outside of the accredited training system. Applications need to be made for a whole unit of competency. You will need to provide evidence to prove your application. Cost per unit $100.

Fee Waive

Alzheimer's WA may waive fees and charges for students we assess to be in severe financial hardship for courses up to Certificate IV. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis. A separate fee waive application form with all supporting evidence must be submitted before enrolment is confirmed.
